

Dr. Rui Feng from Troy University was Invited to Give a Lecture at Fort Rucker Asian American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month Luncheon

On May 30th, Dr. Rui Feng from Education Department of Troy University, along with 6 CIT staff, was invited to attend Fort Rucker Asian American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month Luncheon. He gave a lecture on “The Cultural Divergences between the East and the West” over the luncheon, which aroused enthusiastic responses among the audience.

Fort Rucker Asian American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month featured various East Asian cultural activities and performances, hence helped all the officers and their men gain a deeper understanding of the cultures. At the opening ceremony of Asian American/Pacific Islander Heritage Month, CIT teachers introduced a showcase of the Chinese folk music instruments. At its closing ceremony luncheon, CIT offered a fantastic fan and ribbon dance.

