

CIT Teachers Attended Teacher Training in Georgia State University

From April 18th to 19th, 2014 four teachers led by Associate Director Xiaofeng Chen went to Georgia State University and attended Teachers of Chinese as a Foreign Language Training Program hosted by both Hanban /Confucius Institute Headquarters and CI at Georgia State University.

All the participants attended the lectures given by Prof. Zhaojing, Prof. Liping Jiang and Dr. Hong Xu from CI at Troy University. The professors shared their own teaching and research from different perspectives as basic laws of Chinese language teaching, classroom management, Chinese teaching case studies in American context. All the lectures were well acclaimed by the attendees, who expressed their sincere hope to put what they learned from the training session into teaching practicum.

At the end of the training, all the five teachers from CIT were awarded a Chinese training Certificate conferred by Hanban/ Confucius Institute Headquarters.

Attached are the name of the presenters and their lecture topic.

Jing Zhao, The basic Principles of Chinese Language Instruction and Its Pedagogical Practice in China and the U.S.

Liping Jiang, Chinese Language Pedagogy and Case Analysis

Iris Xu, Chinese Teaching Materials and Classroom Management

