

Montgomery Focus– Series of 2016 Fall CCC Events

A Lecture on A Tour to Sichuan II

On Nov 16, 2016, the 6th lecture of Montgomery Focus in the Fall Season, one of Chinese Culture Club events– A Tour to Sichuan II – was held at E.L. Lowder Library.

By showing a lot of pictures and videos, the lecturer, Ms. Kai Zeng, briefly illustrated the world cultural heritage, traditional Sichuan culture and arts, folk customs and the cuisines of Sichuan Province. The lecture also focused on the Sichuan Giant Panda Base, the changing faces of Sichuan Opera, the marriage customs of the minority Mosuo People and Chengdu– the capital city of Sichuan. The attendees showed great interests in giant panda protection and the combination of classical and modern city construction in Sichuan. They also asked many questions and Ms. Zeng and other instructors such as Ms. Wei Yu and Jing Zhao answered their questions and further explained in details. Absorbed in the fragrance of jasmine tea, the participants obtained a better and richer understanding of Sichuan, China. After the lecture, the audience took their pictures of diversified naive pandas back home as a good memory.

