

The Confucius Institute at Troy University Organized Students China Trip 2016

On May 12-May 27, 2016, 12 Troy University students, organized and sponsored by The Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) made China trip happen. During the two week trip, they visited Beijing, Wuxi, Suzhou and Shanghai. They paid visits to the famous historical sites, like, the Great Wall, the Forbidden City, the Temple of Heaven. Also, they visited the cultural sightseeing in the four cities, for example, the Summer Place, the Tai Lake, the Lingering Garden and the Bund. This trip is the first hand experiences for Troy students to understand the Chinese language and culture and its people.

Alanna Cook, one member of the trip, said, missing my China family. The past two weeks I got to see and do many amazing things, and I got to share those experiences with a group of people who reminded that people are capable of being good, kind, and supportive.

