

Charles Henderson Middle School Open House

On August 22, 2017, Confucius Institute at Troy University held an open house in Charles Henderson Middle School. All staff on Troy campus of CIT participated in the event. The principal, Mr. Brown, gave the opening speech in Chinese, and then the Chinese director Mr. Zhi Zha led the students from CNU to perform the dragon and lion dance. Ms. Lin Cao, Ms. Lili Hu and Ms. Wenjuan Cheng showed the Chinese tea, calligraphy, Chinese knot, panda, shuttlecock and the couplets and other Chinese traditions for the students. Ms. Hu also introduced all the students' works to the parents. CIT teachers made bracelets for each student as gifts, and all the students said they liked Chinese classes and Chinese culture. Many parents said their child really liked and enjoyed this experience in the Chinese class.
