

Chinese Culture Series— Chinese Traditional Costumes

On April 20, 2017, the Confucius Institute at Troy University held Chinese Corner with the theme of “Chinese Traditional Costumes”. The Keynote speaker, Ms. Chunyu Zhou, a visiting scholar from Southwest University of Science and Technology, introduced the features of Chinese traditional costumes from Qin dynasty to Han, Tang, Song, Ming and Qing dynasties respectively. Then one of the audience tried on one special traditional Chinese costume — Fèngguān Xiápèi, worn by the Chinese brides on the traditional Chinese wedding. At last, all the audience had in-depth discussion on Chinese traditional costumes and the problem of foot binding in the ancient China. After the presentation, all the audience had gained better understanding of Chinese traditional costumes.

