

Montgomery Focus – Series of 2017 Spring CCC Events

A Lecture on Chinese Tea Culture

CIT Montgomery Campus held the eighth lecture of Chinese Culture Event on Chinese Tea Culture in Perry Hill Road Church on May 15, 2017. The Tea talk, which was demonstrated by CIT instructor Jing Zhao, not only brought abundant information on Chinese Tea and Tea culture, but also presented live experience of Chinese tea drinking with the audience. During the 2-hour workshop the attendees were demonstrated with the details of China tea-drinking history, and the art of drinking tea as well as the classification of five famous types of tea. Then the audience got the opportunities to respectively enjoy the taste and aroma of white tea, green tea, yellow tea, Oolong tea and black tea. Surrounded by the tea fragrance and beautiful melody of Chinese classic music in meeting room of the church, the audience expressed their interests in Chinese methods of brewing tea. At last, the schedule 2017 Fall Semester Chinese Language Classes was announced to the distinguished guests.
