Troy University wants your collegiate experience to be a positive one. The University believes you have the potential to succeed in college, and that you can benefit from a prescribed course of study and careful monitoring of your progress. To be granted CONDITIONAL ADMISSION to the University, you must agree to the following conditions:

1. I will attempt no more than 14 hours per semester (7 hours per accelerated semester) for a maximum of 24 hours of Troy University work while on conditional status. Within the beginning and ending dates of a Fall, Spring, or Summer semester, concurrent enrollment in the semester and any term(s) may not exceed 14 hours.
2. I will enroll in instructional support courses, if needed, to support my academic success. These courses may not be covered by certain types of financial aid.
3. I will enroll in all remedial courses as determined by my ACT, SAT, or Placement Score score.
4. I will work with my assigned adviser to determine the remainder of my course work throughout my conditional admission period.

NOTES: Some degree programs, financial services, or other extracurricular activities may require additional admission standards that must be met in order to gain admission to the specified program.

Earning Unconditional Admission Status

I will be granted unconditional admission status when the following criteria have been met:

1. I have satisfactorily completed the prescribed course of study and requirements outlined above.
  2. I have earned at least a 2.00 institutional GPA on the first 12 – 24 semester hours attempted.
- Failure to earn at least a 2.00 institutional GPA within the first 24 hours attempted will result in being dropped from program. A student dropped from the program may appeal for readmission to the University, after a period of 12 months, through the campus specific Conditional Appeals Committee (CAC) where the original conditional admission was granted. Students who have transferred to accredited universities after being dropped from the program, and wish to return to TROY must apply for admission through the Office of Enrollment Management.
  - Any student, who earns a 0.0 GPA for the initial term/semester with at least 6 hours attempted, will be dropped from program at Troy University.

I, the undersigned, understand the above statements and will enroll in Troy University under conditional admission.
