

China Trip Sets Sail Soon

—China Trip 2015 was launched in Confucius Institute at Troy University

At 4 p.m. on January 15th 2015, Confucius Institute at Troy University held a launching ceremony for this years China Trip. CIT staff Ms. Tingting Xiong presented related information concerning 2015's China Trip to teachers, students and community members, and also answered questions, the launching ceremony was a complete success.

China Trip is a well-known yearly project sponsored by China Hanban and organized by the Confucius Institute at Troy University to provide opportunities for foreigners to travel to China and get to know China's cities, customs and people. Every China trip lasts about half a month and visits 3-5 major Chinese cities. For many years, this project has been welcomed by the local people of Alabama, and has been successfully held 8 times since 2009, there have been more than 200 people brought to China by this project, including government senators, students, professors and businessmen etc. 2015's China Trip will go to 4 big cities in China: Beijing, Shanghai, Suzhou and Hangzhou. Participants only need to purchase the international round-trip air tickets, which is well worth the money. If you want to know more about the previous China Trip, please see:
