

CIT hosted Appreciation Luncheon at Montgomery Campus

The Confucius Institute of Troy University (CIT) hosted its appreciation luncheon to acknowledge the time, talent and energy that Troy Montgomery staff shared with them in the past year.

The luncheon was held on March, 17 at the Troy Montgomery Campus.

Dr. Tatum, Vice Chancellor of Troy Montgomery Campus, delivered a speech where he pointed out the importance of CIT to Troy University, and gave his appreciation to Dr. Xu and the work she has done.

Dr. Iris Xu, delivered an appreciation speech expressing her deep gratitude to Troy University and CIT staff.

Dr. Xu shared with the guests, when she came here eight years ago, there were only few people in Alabama studying Chinese, and now there are over 3000 Chinese learners in Alabama due to CIT's great effort in promoting Chinese language and culture state wide.
