

Montgomery Focus: Confucius Institute attends the 2016 Alabama Book Festival

CIT attended the 2016 Alabama Book Festival on April, 23 to spread the word about the upcoming TROY-STARTALK and to present this year's Chinese textbooks, dictionaries and cultural learning resources.

CIT also presented Chinese/English audio charts which make picking up a Chinese character or word easier and more entertaining drew a lot of attention of the passersby, especially kids and their parents.

CIT instructors promoted the upcoming 2016 TROY-STARTALK Chinese Language Summer Program to high school students.

The book festival also gave CIT instructors the opportunity to present the Chinese language courses and Chinese Culture Club on CIT Montgomery Campus to many people curious about information of Chinese courses and cultural events.

The CIT booth decorated with beautiful Chinese Knots, Peking Opera Masks, and a prominent red CIT flag was quite distinctive among over one hundred exhibition stands.

