What are the most significant barriers or challenges your program is currently facing (e.g., enrollment, faculty resources, student support, accreditation requirements)?

Responses will not be used to evaluate or penalize program.

The information collected is for the purpose of informing broader understanding, identifying trends, and guiding future policy.

Full-time faculty surveyed reported the most significant barriers and challenges to our programs is currently transition throughout the institution, securing support for the department from higher leadership, and ensuring that faculty resources are enough to provide quality programing (including hiring new faculty with increased enrollment, capping class enrollment appropriately, and addressing equity of work across faculty).

What successes or available resources have contributed most to your program's growth, effectiveness, or ability to support students?

Responses will not be used to evaluate or penalize program.

The information collected is for the purpose of informing broader understanding, identifying trends, and guiding future policy.

Full-time faculty surveyed reported success of our residencies and highlights of faculty and students successes have contributed to grown and effectiveness.

What is CACREP doing well for your program that you appreciate?

Faculty surveyed reported that CACREP upholding standards has allowed faculty to ensure our programs uphold the integrity and quality needed, especially in light of institutional leadership transitions and the current political climate.

What would you like to see CACREP do differently in its current services?

Faculty surveyed reported that while, overall standards and guidance are helpful, more specific guidance such as time required for residency is helpful in advocating for our students and programs.

What services or resources would you like to see CACREP add or develop that would better serve you and your program?

Faculty surveyed reported resources or guidance on faculty equity of workload and services or guidance on how faculty should manage administrative demands during periods of accreditation reporting or transition to avoid significant overload.

Please provide a name and contact email address of the person completing this survey. This address will be used if the CACREP office has any questions about the information provided in this survey.
