Dr. Charissa Lambert

Dr. Charissa Lambert has served in public education for twenty-one years as a Secondary English Teacher, Instructional Partner, and currently as a Literacy Specialist in the Office of School Improvement for ALSDE. Supporting schools in the Governor's Turnaround School Initiative and teachers and schools in all eleven regions has proven to be highly rewarding as Charissa prides herself as a teacher advocate and champion for students. This passion for all things literacy in her professional life is also evident in her personal life as she is an avid reader and writer.

Presentation Title: Unwrapping the Gift of Writing

Thursday July 9, 2026

M. Colleen Cruz

M. Colleen Cruz is an educator, independent consultant, and author committed to making rich literacy education accessible. She brings her student-centered, research-driven work to schools, districts, organizations and teacher education programs both nationally and internationally through demonstration, co-teaching, workshops and speaking engagements. Her popular books include The Unstoppable Writing Teacher, the Writers Read Better series, and Border Crossing, a Tomás Rivera Mexican-American Children's Books Finalist, with her latest Neurodiversity in the Literacy Classroom: The General Educator's Guide to IEPs, Dyslexia, ADHD, Autism, and More available Spring, 2026 from Corwin Press.
