Darkness

Darkness

The evil consumes me
Making me cry
It makes me so angry
I feel like a spy
Spying on my life
From above looking in
As if i'm in the afterlife
The evil is still within
I can't escape it
It's starting to consume me
I wish I could just quit
I wish people could see
That I'm really trying
But all they think is that i'm lying
The evil thoughts seep in
Pushing all the light away
But I am strong
And I do belong
So I will keep trying
The endless battle
