ACLTA Forum is an annual conference dedicated to bring together K-16 teachers, policymakers, scholars, educational administrators, and other professionals in the field of Chinese culture and language education worldwide to share the best practices, research findings and inspiring ideas.

In 2018, based on its successes of the previous forums, the 9th ACLTA Forum will continue to serve as a primary forum for Chinese culture and language education in the United States. Our goal is to provide a comprehensive professional development experience that will have an impact on language educators at all levels of teaching and in turn help their students to succeed in their language learning process. The forum's theme of the 9th is "Developing Cultural Awareness in Chinese Language Teaching".

Hosted by the Alabama Chinese Language Teachers Association (ACLTA), in collaboration with CILC and CI at Troy University, ACLTA Forum will be held at TROY University Montgomery, on April 14, 2018. The registration deadline is on April 10, 2018. You are welcome to join us for:
