

Confucius Institute and Study Abroad at Troy University 2019 Spring China Trip Announcement

What: The Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) and Study Abroad at Troy University hosts another trip to China this upcoming Spring, 2019. CIT has supported more than 670 Alabamians to visit China since 2009. We will visit Chongqing, Chengdu, Xi'an, and Beijing.

Who: All Troy University students and faculty are eligible to participate

Where: We will visit key economic development and education institutions in Chongqing, Chengdu and Xi'an, and Beijing that will be of interest to the participants.

When: March 7th – March 17th, 2019.

Why: China is a dynamic country with many opportunities to enhance your career choices, and a visit now will allow you to witness in person how progress and development are giving China such a dramatic face lift. We will visit Chongqing, Chengdu, Xi'an, and Beijing.

Learn more about the trip Itinerary: Please contact Austin Deal at 334-808-6544 | adeal147358@troy.edu. You may stop by the Confucius Institute at any time for more information. Just go to room 021 Bibb Graves Hall (lower-level) and ask about this trip.

Our 1st meeting will be held at 014 Bibb Graves Hall (lower-level) at 4:00-5:00 p.m. on Nov. 13th, 2018.

For information regarding the Chancellor's Award for Global Competitiveness, please contact Sarah McKenzie at 334-808-6128 or smckenzie93530@troy.edu

All in-China lodging, meals, travel expenses, ticket fees, and are paid for by CIT (except extra cities). Approximate price for entire trip is ~$1,750. Don't forget about the Chancellor's Award for Global Competitiveness!

MATERIAL FOR REFERENCE ONLY