

Visiting Scholars from Dothan Campus Visited Vice Chancellor Dr. Jeffrey

On April 3, 2019, visiting scholars Wang Yandong, Jiang Na and He Yan from Confucius Institute at Troy University, Dothan Teaching and Research Center visited Dr. Jeffrey, Vice Chancellor of Troy University Dothan campus.

At 4 p.m., the visiting scholars arrived at the Vice Chancellor's office on time. Dr. Jeffrey warmly welcomed them to sit down and have a cordial talk. He has strong ties to China and knows a lot about Chinese culture. He mentioned that the industrious and talented Chinese people have made great contributions to the world in the course of historical development and have been at the forefront of navigation, trade and other fields. The words were full of admiration, and the visiting scholars were deeply touched and proud. Vice Chancellor also inquired about the life and research of the visiting scholars, and encouraged them to learn about American culture, earnestly spread Chinese language and culture, and enhance the friendship between the two nations.

The visiting scholars expressed their deep gratitude for Dr. Jeffrey's care and encouragement, and presented a traditional Suzhou embroidery art work as a souvenir.
