

Chinese Tea Ceremony for the Vice Chancellor of Troy University

On May 29th, the Confucius Institute at Troy University presents a Chinese tea ceremony on Montgomery Campus of Troy University. The Vice Chancellor, Mr. White and the administrative officials are invited to the ceremony and to have a taste of Chinese tea. Dr. Hong Xu, Dean of the Confucius Institute of Troy University and Dr. Li Fang, a visiting scholar of CITU, also attend the event.

Senior tea master, Ms. Zheng Zhou performed the tea ceremony for the guests and brewed two types of tea, the dark tea Pu'er and Jasmine green tea. Mr. White was greatly impressed by the performance of the tea master and the natural aroma of Chinese tea. He also shared his ideas on the history and spread of Chinese tea. Later on, the vice chancellor communicated with the visiting scholars about their work and research experiences on Montgomery Campus. Dr. Hong Xu also had an in-depth communication with Mr. White on the future plan and development of CITU. This tea ceremony is a successful event in which CITU has expended its influence and the promotion of Chinese culture on Montgomery Campus.

孔子学院邀请蒙高校区副校长欣赏茶艺表演
