On June 29th, 2020, over 80 trainees attended the third activity of TROY-STAR 2020 Chinese Language Teacher Online Summer Training Program. Starting with a game, the Visiting Scholar from CIT, Zhijing Qiu presented the activity. First, she gave a brief introduction to the history of Chinese paper-cutting, and then presented some classic paper-cutting works. The trainees got a better understanding of Chinese paper-cutting with her detailed explanation of the symbolic meanings from contents, image expression, geographic style and color aspects. She also illustrated the tools and skills of how to make a paper-cutting work. At the end of this activity, all the trainees made a 3D Ping An, or safe, paper-cutting decoration to express their best wishes for a beautiful life.
