

Dear TROY Friends,

It is with great pride that I present the first year of issues of TROY Today Magazine. This re-imagined, updated version of our publication perfectly represents TROY's mission of continued growth and change.

Because we want only the best for our students and alumni, we want your company as a partner. The excellence you provide will help maintain the high quality of these first issues. As we continue to celebrate the achievements of our alumni around the globe, the plans for TROY Today continue to grow. According to our projections, the distribution of our bi-annual magazine will increase along with our alumni and friends. TROY Today will be mailed to alumni members, donors, faculty and staff, as well as to a varying list of students, parents, partners, peer institutions, and friends.

We hope you enjoy these issues of TROY Today. From cover to cover, they showcase news from across the University and feature the stories and achievements of TROY students, alumni and faculty.

Included within this package, you'll find our rate card as well as our contact information.

My team and I thank you for your partnership with Troy University. We look forward to promoting your company in future issues.

Sincerely,
