

Troy University
Freedom of Speech Annual Report
August 1, 2020 – July 31, 2021

- 1) The date and description of each violation of the policy adopted pursuant to this act.

Troy University had no violations of the policy during the previous year.

- 2) A description of the administrative handling and discipline relating to each violation described.

Not applicable with no violations.

- 3) A description of substantial difficulties, controversies, or successes in maintaining a posture of administrative and institutional neutrality.

There have been no difficulties or controversies. The successes include the close working relationship the students have with the administration and share with the administration any events planned and any concerns the student leadership may have with an event while respecting one's freedom of speech. There is a direct line of communication between our campus student leaders and our administration.

- 4) Any assessments, criticism, commendations, or recommendations the board of trustees sees fit to include.

The University hosted multiple events on campus promoting freedom of speech to include:

- Unity marches (one with athletes, one with international students, and another with the general student body) that included members of the faculty, staff and administration.
- Unity and prayer breakfast to include members of the University administration, faculty, staff, students and community members.
- Annual Bible distribution by the Gideons.
