

LOGOS

VOLUME II, NO. 11 A NEWSLETTER FROM THE DOTHAN CAMPUS NOVEMBER 1, 1985

The Troy State University Faculty and Staff Newsletter is distributed monthly by the office of University Affairs. It is intended to be a vehicle for the dissemination of information to employees of the University. Suggestions as to format and content of the Logos will be welcomed by the University Affairs staff. Employees are encouraged to submit data for inclusion no later than the 25th of each month.

MEETINGS

A development session for all non-teaching personnel will be held in the ballroom on November 1st from 11:00-12:00.

AWARDS & HONORS

Pam Willis and Jan Anderson have been selected to be included in the Outstanding Young Women of America listing for 1985.

Gayle Oberst was selected as the Dothan's Business and Professional Women's Woman of Achievement 1985.

PEANUT FESTIVAL ACTIVITIES

Mark McCuistian was responsible for our peanut festival fair activities and is to be commended for a job well done! He and Pam Willis did an outstanding job in designing and organizing the booth at the fair. A special thanks to everyone who worked in making this year's TSU participation a success.

Dr. Lester Stewart coordinated the activities of the local queens who competed for the festival title and assisted in the week long activities that led to the crowning of the queen.

Dr. Larry Brown served as a judge for science exhibits at the fair.

A new building to house the University library and several large classrooms has been designed by local architects. The building plans are based on the approximately one million dollar allocation from the state bond monies.

SPEAKING ENGAGEMENTS

Dr. Lester Stewart spoke at the Headland homecoming activities about "TSU-Dothan/Fort Rucker, the past and future".

Jan Anderson and Gayle Oberst presented a program about Mentoring to the Zonta Club on October 28th.

WORKSHOPS ATTENDED

Kathy Todd attended a counseling conference in Birmingham October 23rd-25th.

Gayle Oberst and Jan Anderson attended a workshop in Jackson, Mississippi in adult learning October 7th and 8th. Oberst also attended a meeting in Birmingham of the Alabama Association of Women Deans and Administrators on October 2nd.

PRESENTATIONS OF PAPERS

Dr. Lauren Mohundro and Dr. Mary Jo Pollman were notified that their proposal: "The Making of Master Level Teachers into Curriculum Leaders" was accepted for the 32nd annual Southeastern Regional Association of Teacher Educators Conference. Thirteen states will be represented at the conference in Montgomery.

MEDIA CENTER

During the past few months new audiovisual software and hardware items placed in the media center include: Video cassettes, 16 mm films, records, and sound slide/tape programs in the fields of Computer Technology, Business Management, Counseling and Human Development, Literature, and Science. A new Panasonic video system and a Dukane sound filmstrip projector were also placed in the media center at the beginning of Fall quarter.

The equipment for application of lamination and overhead transparency production processes is available and media center personnel will provide instruction to those who are not familiar with the processes.

Alvin G. Cooper, Coordinator of the Media Center, will be happy to assist you in meeting your media needs.

NEW PARKING LOT

A parking lot for TSU-Dothan has been opened for student parking at the corner of Adams and Oates Streets.

SYMPATHIES EXTENDED

The faculty and staff expresses their sympathy to Dr. Wyatt Grimmer and family in the death of Dr. Faye Grimmer. A TSU Foundation Memorial Fund has been established in her name. Contributions can be made through University Affairs.

EMPLOYEES FEATURE

Two new faculty members have joined the School of Arts and Sciences: Dr. Alan T. Belsches and Dr. Mary Shoaf.

Dr. Alan T. Belsches serves as an assistant professor of English. He has taught for the past six years at the University of North Carolina. He has a Ph.D. in Literature and a Master of Arts and Bachelor of Arts in English. Dr. and Mrs. Belsches are the parents of two children and live in Dothan. Mrs. Belsches is a librarian with the City School System.

TODAY'S SECRETARY

"A Seminar Designed for You"

The Division of Continuing Education at Troy State University at Dothan/Fort Rucker presents the management of time, stress, and career for secretaries, administrative assistants and office managers.

The Chamber of Commerce has requested that TSU-Dothan students, faculty and staff not park in their lot. Thank you for your cooperation with this.

Mr. & Mrs. Richard Arthur opened The Very Best Yogurt Shop No. 2 on the southside of Dothan during October.

The Division of Continuing Education is presenting a seminar for secretaries, administrative assistances, and office managers on November 14th at the Sheraton. Any staff member interested in attending should contact Jan Anderson before November 11th.

FALL ENROLLMENT

For the second year, TSU-Dothan/Fort Rucker has seen an increase in enrollment. The present enrollment of 1122 at the Dothan campus is the largest since the University began teaching classes in Dothan in the early seventies. The largest increase was experienced in the day program with some 500 students attending classes between 8:00 a.m. and 1:30 p.m. The evening enrollments were slightly higher as was the number of those in graduate programs.

Fort Rucker enrollment reached 660 for the Fall which was also an increase from Fall, 1984.

Employees of Troy State University-Dothan/Fort Rucker - Thank you for your contributions to the 1986 Campaign of the Wiregrass United Way. Your gifts assure a brighter future for thousands of people served by the Wiregrass United Way Agencies.

With your help, the United Way provides the miracle of love and life for many children and adults. Your support will help the twenty-two agencies continue to provide 127 services to the people of the Wiregrass area, making the quality of life better for everyone.

Thanks again for becoming a Miracle Worker.
