A NEWSLETTER FROM THE DOTHAN CAMPUS

FEBRUARY 1, 1986

The Troy State University Faculty and Staff Newsletter is distributed monthly by the office of University Affairs. It is intended to be a vehicle for the dissemination of information to employees of the University. Suggestions as to format and content of the Logos will be welcomed by the University Affairs staff. Employees are encouraged to submit data for inclusion no later than the 25th of each month.

PEOPLE IN THE NEWS

Dr. Leonard Roberts spoke on the topic, "The Changing Images of Christ in the Art of Western Civilization," to the Dothan Methodist Singles Club on Sunday, January 12, 1986.

Dr. Mary Jo Pollman conducted a workshop, "Back to the Basics Through Dramatic Play," for the Alabama Association for Young Children at the district meeting in Mobile on January 14, 1986. She also conducted a workshop, "Motivational Techniques and Visual Aids for Songs, Fingerplays and Stories for ECE" at the January 21st meeting of the Wiregrass Association for Young Children held at TSU-Dothan.

Dr. Priscilla McArthur was notified recently that her book, Arkansas and the Gold Rush, was accepted for publication. The book was commissioned by the Arkansas Territorial Restoration as part of the 150th statehood birthday celebration of Arkansas.

Becky Yarbrough appeared in CARING, a quarterly publication from the Southeast Alabama Medical Center, presenting toys made by the TSU-Dothan nursing students to the center.

Dr. Mary Jo Pollman attended a training session in Atlanta, Ga., on January 17-18 to become a validator for the National Academy of Early Childhood Programs.

Dr. Robert J. Long will have his article, "The Edict of Diocletian: Notes and Speculations," published in an upcoming edition of the Refereed Section of the Midsouth Journal of Economics and Finance.

Dr. Kim Sokoya was notified recently that his article, "Value Orientation of Managers: The Nigeria Case," will be presented and published in the Proceedings of the Midwest Regional Meeting of the Academy of International Business in Chicago, March 1986.

Sandra Faria and Becky Yarbrough participated as instructors in a statewide Board Review course sponsored by the Continuing Education Department at TSU-Montgomery. Faria conducted the one-day review on medical surgical techniques and Yarbrough reviewed pediatrics.

Dr. Lester Stewart has been selected to serve on a special committee as a part of the Arts & Humanities Committee for the City of Dothan. This group will work with the Auburn Arts & Humanities Council in an effort to bring additional cultural activities to the City of Dothan.

Dr. Larry Brown, Dr. Mary Brown and Dr. Gene Bergquist will be judges for the Science Fair at the Jackson County School System in Graceville, Florida, on February 20, 1986.
