TSUD HOLDS FIRST RALPH W. ADAMS ADDRESS

The College of Arts and Sciences held its first Chancellor's Address on July 28, in the ballroom of Houston Hall. Early in the evening, Dr. Larry Brown announced that in the future this event would be known as the Ralph W. Adams Address. The program featured Harold W. Stanley, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Political Science at the University of Rochester and currently visiting research professor of political science at the University of Alabama.

A native of Enterprise, Stanley received the B.A., Magna Cum Laude and the Ph.D. in political science from Yale University. A member of Phi Beta Kappa, Stanley received the M. Phil. from Oxford University where he was a Rhodes Scholar. He is the author of several books including Vital Statistics on American Politics, Voter Mobilization and the Politics of Race: The South and Universal Suffrage, 1952-1984, and Senate vs. Governor. Stanley has had articles published in the Journal of Politics, The American Political Science Review, Comparative Political Studies, The New Republic, and The New York Times.

Over one hundred TSUD faculty, staff and guests turned out to hear Stanley's address on "Presidential Politics and the South: 1988 and Looking Back." After a question and answer session, those attending were invited to a reception held in the deli area.

NEW TSUD PERSONNEL

Please join us in welcoming Mr. Gene Murphree, new Vice-President for Financial Affairs, and Mrs. Diane Murphy, new instructor in the School of Education.

Mr. Murphree comes to the University from his position as Senior Program Analyst in the Legislative Fiscal Office in his hometown of Montgomery. Murphree, who holds both an undergraduate degree and a MBA from AUM, has also served as Chief Accountant for the Baptist Foundation of Alabama. He and his wife, Kathy, have two daughters, Abby Melissa and Martha Anne.

Mrs. Murphy has spent nearly ten years in the Ozark City School System serving as the Secondary Curriculum Supervisor, Special Education Coordinator, Coordinator for the Career Incentive Program, and Assistant Principal at Carroll High School. Mrs. Murphy has both her undergraduate and graduate degrees in Special Education/Mental Retardation from Auburn University. She has completed her doctoral coursework and is currently working to finish her dissertation. Her husband, Jim, is a high school coach and they have two children, Katie and Patrick.

ROBERT M. PAUL SCHOLARSHIP ESTABLISHED

In recognition of his contributions to education and to TSUD, a Robert M. Paul Memorial Scholarship Fund has been established. Those of us who knew and worked with Mr. Paul believe that a perpetual scholarship in his memory would be a most fitting tribute to him, his family and his work.

If you would like to join us in creating this scholarship through the Troy State University at Dothan Foundation, please complete the lower portion of this page and return it with your contribution.

Serving on the Robert M. Paul Memorial Scholarship Fund Committee: Dr. J. Wyatt Grimmer, Chairman; Dr. Larry Brown; Mrs. Gayle F. Oberst; Mr. Crawford Buchanan; Dr. Marjorie Kirkland; and Dr. Jack R. Sublette.
