ACHE VISITS TSUD CAMPUS

Troy State University at Dothan and George C. Wallace State Community College hosted the visit to the Dothan area by the Alabama Commission on Higher Education (ACHE) on Thursday and Friday, February 10th & 11th.

Thursday's activities included a brief press conference at 1:45 p.m., in 115 Malone Hall on the TSUD campus with Dr. Henry Hector, Executive Director of ACHE, Mr. Borden Morrow, Commission Chairman from Daphne, and Mr. Ben Beard, Commissioner from Troy.

At 2:00 p.m. the Academic Affairs Committee and the Financial Affairs Committee met concurrently. The Student Assistance Committee convened at 4:00 p.m., and committee meetings concluded with the Executive Committee beginning at 4:30 p.m. These committee meetings were held on the TSUD campus.

A dinner for ACHE members and staff, college and university presidents, and other invited guests at Holiday Inn-South in Dothan featured Dr. Thomas Harrison, TSUD President, and Dr. Larry Beaty, Wallace College President, providing a joint presentation on their respective institutions.

The Commission continued its activities at Wallace College on Friday at the 7:30 a.m. breakfast and discussion session with the commissioners and Dr. Hector. Following at 9:30 a.m., ACHE held its Commission meeting. The day concluded with a lunch for ACHE officials.

CAREER DAY '93

CAREER DAY '93 was hosted by the Office of Counseling Services and Job Placement on Wednesday, February 10, 1993. Thirty-one area businesses, six school systems, and four TSUD clubs participated in the event. Pamela Williamson, Director of Counseling Services at TSUD, remarked, "I am pleased that TSUD can provide this quality program for the students on our campus each year."

A common observance from the majority of businesses and school systems was the friendliness, enthusiasm, and seriousness of the TSUD students attending the career fair.

TSUD PARTICIPATES IN TRADE SHOW

Troy State University at Dothan participated in the annual "Spotlight on Business" hosted by the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce on February 25, 1993. The event was held from 1:00 - 8:00 p.m. The trade show enables TSUD to associate with over eighty area businesses and hundreds of participants who visit each booth to peruse products and services provided by the exhibitors.

TSUD is active in many Chamber activities with each member of the Administrative Council participating on a Chamber committee.

DR. SUBLETTE PRESENTS AT NATIONAL CONFERENCE

On February 7-10, 1993, Dr. Jack R. Sublette, TSUD Executive Vice President and Vice President for Student Affairs and Development, attended A National Conference on Successful College Teaching and Administration. Co-sponsored by the Institute of Higher Education and the Division of Continuing Education at the University of Florida and the Higher Education Program and Division of Continuing Education at Texas Tech University, the conference, held at the Sheraton Plaza Hotel in Orlando, Florida, focused on the theme "Improving and Rewarding Teaching in the Nineties."

Dr. Sublette presented a paper on TSUD's OWLS program as an example of a successful program to recruit adult students. Other papers included presentations by speakers from the University of South Florida, Emporia State University, Bowling Green State University, Georgia State University, University of Wisconsin, and many other institutions on a wide variety of topics.

The conference is held annually in Orlando. Anyone interested in attending or presenting a paper next year (last week in February) should contact Dr. Sublette.
