NEWSLETTER FOR TSUD FACULTY AND STAFF

CONVOCATION HONORS TOPS

Sixty people were recognized individually for their scholastic honor at and/or contribution to Troy State University Dothan during the ninth annual Spring Honors Convocation held on Friday, May 3, 1996. The TSUD Spring Honors Convocation is held each year to honor those individuals who have achieved scholastic excellence and have exceeded normal expectations at the university.

Outstanding Faculty Members

Dr. Frank Lovrich, vice president for academic affairs, recognized three outstanding faculty members, one from each college/school. Receiving the outstanding faculty award from the School of Business was Dr. Lannes L. Morris-Murphy, Dothan, CIS/MIS instructor. Dr. Brenda Ameter, Dothan, assistant professor of English received the outstanding faculty award for the College of Arts and Sciences, and Sheila Bennett, Alford, FL, psychology instructor, received the award for the School of Education.

The Outstanding Faculty Award recognizes one faculty member from each school or college who has made exemplary contributions in teaching, research, writing, and service to the University and/or community.

Outstanding Staff Members

Two staff members at Troy State University Dothan were among sixty people to be individually honored during the recent TSUD Spring Honors Convocation. Dr. Ken Deavers, TSUD vice president for financial affairs and administration, presented the honors.

The Outstanding Staff Award is given in recognition of superior service, loyalty, and dedication to Troy State University Dothan.

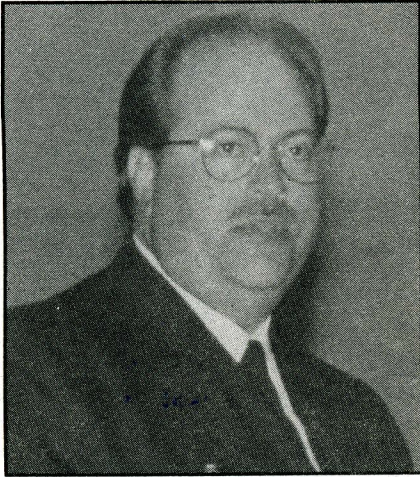

Receiving the Outstanding Professional Staff Award was Jonua Byrd, Geneva, director of financial aid and veterans' affairs. Karen McGahee, Abbeville, departmental secretary for the School of Education, received the Outstanding Classified Staff Award.

Dothan Police Chief Receives Alumni Award

Each year, TSUD presents the Distinguished Alumni Award to an alumnus or alumna in recognition of professional development, service to community, personal merit, and/or exemplary service to Troy State University Dothan. This year's recipient was John White, Dothan's police chief.

White earned his bachelor's degree in criminal justice and his master's degree in counseling and psychology from TSUD. He has also completed course work at the Southeast Alabama Police Academy, the FEMA Nuclear Emergency Response School in Nevada, the Los Angeles Sheriff's Academy in California, and the FBI National Academy at Quantico, VA.

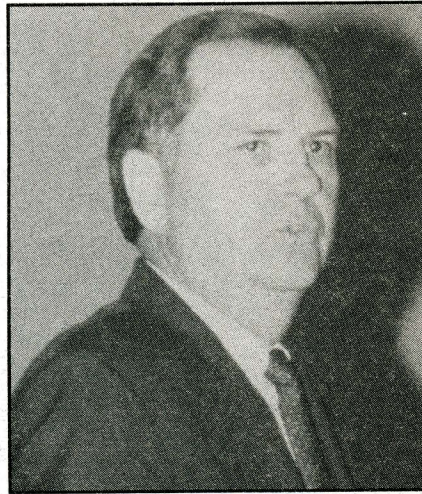

He was appointed police chief in 1995 after serving 21 years in the Dothan Police Department, where he retired as captain in 1993. White then joined TSUD as a faculty member in criminal justice, but his full-time teaching career was cut short when he was called back into service as chief of the Dothan Police Department. White continues to serve as a valued member of TSUD's part-time instructional faculty.

His professional affiliations include project director for the Southeast Regional Drug Task Force, the HUD Housing Drug Elimination program, and the DARE program. He has been a panel member of the Governor's Conference on Drug Abuse and the conference on Youth Violence. He is a member of the Fraternal Order of Police, the Alabama Peace officer's Association, the FBI National Academy Associates, and the Alabama and the International Association of Chiefs of Police.

White's community service activities include affiliations with the House of Ruth, the Dothan Jaycees, the Exchange Club of Dothan, Hawk-Houston Boys Club, and the Substance Abuse Board. In his spare time, he enjoys umpiring baseball games. White and his wife, Barbara, have two sons: Aaron, 16; Adam, 13.

TSUD Honors Coggins

Charles Coggins, vice president of administration and finance at AAA Cooper Transportation, was honored with the Community Service Award during the recent Troy State University Dothan Spring Honors Convocation. This award is given in recognition of outstanding service to TSUD by citizens from the Wiregrass region.

Coggins received his bachelor's degree in business administration from The University of Alabama. He is a Certified Public Accountant, a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, the Alabama Society of Certified Public Accountants, and the Institute of Management Accountants. He serves on the Board of Directors of the National Accounting and Finance Council of the American Trucking Associations.

He is a member of the Dothan Rotary Club, is on the Board of Directors of the Dothan Area Chamber of Commerce, and serves as treasurer for the Chamber. His Chamber activities include or have included vice chair for economic development, vice chair for community affairs, member of the Health Care Task Force, the Surface Transportation Committee, and the Legislative Affairs Committee. He is also a member of the Dothan by Design Operations Committee. He is this year's Houston County chairman for the Wiregrass United Way, and he also serves on the Executive Committee and the Board of Trustees for United Way. Coggins is treasurer of the Education Foundation for Dothan's Future, and he is on the Boards of Directors for both the Association of the United States Army and SouthTrust Bank of Dothan. He chaired the committee that is responsible for the 1996 Olympic Torch Relay coming through Dothan. His professional affiliation with TSUD includes his co-chairmanship of the TSUD Continuing Education Advisory Council.

He and his wife, Minnie, have two grown daughters and three grandchildren. In his spare time, he enjoys cycling, scuba diving, and snow skiing. He, his wife, and children are all licensed pilots.

News from The TSU System

TSU Alumni Affairs Holds MasterCard/VISA Day

The Troy State University Office of Alumni Affairs held a MasterCard/VISA Day on the TSU Campus.

Revenues from this credit card program help support local TSU alumni chapters and their various needs. The programs also provide funds for scholarships for prospective TSU students while supporting current TSU student programs such as Trojan Ambassadors, Real World 101 ( a program for graduating seniors), Designated Driver Program and Safe Spring Break Program.

The athletic department receives funds from the MasterCard/VISA programs for advertisements in athletic programs, support of the Larry Blakeney Show, the Alumni Baseball reunion and a donation for the Athletics Facility Campaign.

Three positions in the TSU Office of Alumni Affairs are partially funded through the program. These are the computer operator and the graduate assistant positions.

The TSU MasterCard is issued through Regions Bank and carries a prime plus 8 percent interest rate. The TSU VISA card carries a 14.4 percent interest rate and is issued through Troy Bank & Trust.

The National TSU Alumni Association receives 1 percent royalty on gross monthly purchases through these credit cards.

Tuition Increases Across TSU System

A 5% increase in tuition for The Troy State University System has been approved by the Board of Trustees. This increase is necessary due to this year's 7.5% cut in state appropriations coupled with projected level funding for next year. Beginning Fall Quarter 1996, the tuition rate at TSUD will be as follows:

IN-STATE TUITION PER QUARTER

Undergraduate, 12 through 18 hours .....700.00

For over 18 hours, per undergraduate credit hour .....28.00

For 11 hours or less, per undergraduate credit hour .....59.50

For graduate courses per credit hour .....61.00

OUT-OF-STATE TUITION PER QUARTER

Undergraduate, 12 through 18 hours .....1,400.00

For over 18 hours, per undergraduate credit hour .....56.00

For 11 hours or less, per undergraduate credit hour .....119.00

For graduate courses per credit hour .....122.00

In addition to a 5% increase in tuition, a technology fee of $1.00 per credit hour to a maximum of $15.00 per quarter will be assessed to each enrolled student. This fee is necessary to provide the required technology to improve access to computers, build the necessary networking infrastructure, and provide access to the Internet.

Garlikov Reviews Book

Dr. Patricia Garlikov, assistant professor of early childhood education at TSUD, has recently completed a book review which has been published in the International Journal of Qualitative Studies in Education.

The book Gender Play: Girls and Boys in School is a descriptive account of the social interactions of girls and boys found in two classrooms in two public schools located in geographically diverse regions of the U.S. The text presents not only kids' daily lives in school but also the journey of the author, Barrie Thorne, who becomes acquainted with them and reacquainted with herself.

Garlikov remarked that the book contained information that crosses several disciplines allowing the author to reveal herself from multiple perspectives.

The Mary Dunlap Fund

On Friday, May 10, the second "Love Offering" was taken to Mary. She is in good spirits and looking forward to getting a kidney transplant and returning to TSUD. The first amount given to Mary was $287 and the second amount was $640, for a total of $927. A third offering will be taken up in early June to give to Mary as she prepares to travel to Birmingham. For more information, contact Sarah Love.

From the TSUD Family

Dear Faculty and Staff,

Thank you for the plant and card you sent during my recent surgery. I feel great and even sleep better than before.

Thanks again,
John McQueen

Thanks to all of you at TSUD for the love you have shown to me since I have been sick. The money was a blessing because I was able to pay some doctor bills and pay for medicines that I needed.

I miss all of you, and I hope to be able to have a kidney transplant in June or July. May God bless each of you.

Love,
Mary Dunlap
