The Student Advocate

January 2014

HAPPY NEW YEAR AND HAPPY READING!!!

Dear Troy Parents,
Greetings and thank you for being part of the Troy University family this semester! Parents and other family members play an essential role throughout a student's college years. The purpose of The Student Advocate Parent Newsletter is to provide you with information every month relating to important events, campus happenings, and to better your student's experience here at TROY. As a parent, you can also help your student by providing them some helpful info as well. We urge you to pass this info along to them. We hope this past fall semester was a positive one for your student and hope that the new year comes a wonderful new beginning as we roll into 2014! Here are a few helpful links that we thought might be helpful for you as we start a new year and a new semester. Thank you for your never ending support and GO TROJANS!
