

TROY UNIVERSITY TIMES TALK REGISTRATION

Weekly conversations over The New York Times

WEDNESDAYS @ NOON – TROJAN CENTER ROOM 119

Sponsored by Troy University's Center for Student Success and The New York Times

As a part of our ongoing efforts to Create a Culture of Reading, Times Talk is an opportunity for students, faculty and staff to engage in discussions on current topics from articles in The New York Times. Using articles from The New York Times as a centerpiece for discussion, faculty can engage students in critical thought and civil discourse on topics that affect us individually and collectively. Times Talk began in 2009 and to date over 800 students have participated.

Times Talk takes place every Wednesday from 12 – 1pm in the Trojan Center, Room 119. Discussions are limited to 25 students and free pizza is provided by The New York Times.

Faculty participation is vital in making this program a success. Below, you are invited to sign up for a date to facilitate a discussion.
