

Teaching jobs in China:

If you are looking to broaden your horizons and experience life in the fastest growing country in the world, then Hong N Training School is the place for you. We are a training school located in Suzhou, China that specializes in teaching English to students with academic levels ranging from the primary to the secondary level.

Suzhou is a thriving city in eastern China that is only a 25-minute train ride from central Shanghai. Suzhou is one of few developed cities that has retained much of its ancient traditional character and charm, with a thriving business district with all the modern amenities that one could ask for. It has become one of the most popular destinations for both locals and foreigners to work and live.

Job Description and Qualifications:

- Native English Speaker or demonstrate proper qualifications for English language fluency.
- Bachelor's degrees in all fields are welcomed.
- Provide quality English lessons to students ranging from the primary level to secondary level.
- Positive, energetic, patient, and responsible with great communication skills interested in teaching English.
- Create lesson plans with Hang N course textbooks.
- 80 Teaching hours per month (20 teaching hours per week).
- You will receive initial training and certifications.
- Chinese teaching assistants will be provided to help with all aspects involving each class.
- One Year Contract term with two months probation period.

Job Benefits:

- Starting salary for new instructors is 8,000RMB per month
- FREE accommodations in Suzhou
- Working Visa Sponsorship
- FREE One-on-one Chinese courses
- Hourly pay for any additional overtime
- 20 days annual leave (Including public Holidays)
- 1,400RMB International Insurance Reimbursement
- 4000RMB Return Flight reimbursement

For Further Information about our schools and benefits please visit our website: <http://hongnsz.com>.