

Thank you letter from attendees of China Trip 2015

Dear Dr. Xu:

On behalf of the “China 5”, Alabama State University China study tour students, we thank you for broadening our horizons with the knowledge of other culture. The experiences that we had while visiting Beijing, Shanghai, Suzhou and Hangzhou will be in our memories for a lifetime. We still can't decide which was our favorite activity, from the Great Wall and the Forbidden City in Beijing, to the Lingering Garden in Suzhou and of course we could never forget the acrobats or the Kung Fu shows. I think that we all agreed that our fondest memoirs will remain the wonderful people of China. Please extend our appreciation to Ms. Tingting. She was great and very patience with us as we attempted to mastered some words in Chinese.

We have asked our dean, Dr. Booth, to see if she can arrange to offer a course in either Conversational Chinese or Chinese for Business this fall semester. We want to be prepared when we return to China and we all have put that in our plans for the future.

Once again, thank you for this profound opportunity.

Charlie Bailey

A note of gratitude for the 2015 China Trip

Respected Dr. Xu,

Greetings !

My name is Grishma Rimal. I was one of the attendees of the Confucius Institute 2015 China trip. This email is a little overdue because I do not have proper internet connection where I am. Sorry for that.

But I sincerely wanted to thank you for your effort in organizing the trip and giving us the invaluable experience of enriching ourselves with a taste of the Chinese culture and heritage.

China is an exquisite country with a rich and fascinating history, and its modern day development is equally intriguing. The trip was extremely beneficial in helping me understand more about your country, its culture and its people.

I think that all the participants learnt a great deal by immersing themselves in the Chinese lifestyle and enjoyed every moment to the core.

I hope that this program continues in the future and more Troy University students take part in this once in a lifetime opportunity.

Also, I would like to thank Ms. Tingting Xiong for her commendable leadership and work during the trip. Her patience, flexibility and helpfulness made the trip easier and pleasant for everyone. She did an outstanding job.

Once again, I express my sincere gratitude towards you and the Confucius Institute.

Sincerely,

Grishma Rimal

5/22/15

Dear Professor Wang,

I wanted to thank you and all the others from the Confucius Institute for a stimulating and interesting introduction to the Chinese language and the culture of china. Your enthusiasm and good manner also give me deep impression
(writing is not clear here)

Sincerely, Miclla

Date: Fri. 22 May 2015

From: Rhonda Gay

Subject: Chinese language class

To: Wang Yanbing

Dear Mr. Wang,

I wanted you to know how much I enjoyed your class, you are an excellent teacher and you kept the class busy with learning the lessons. The videos you showed were very informative and interesting. The different speakers you had to come and speak to us were also very well prepared and presented informative information as well. I would have to say after you my favorite was the lady who had a little "British" accent. The writings of the symbols were very neat! I am so happy to have my name written in your language!

If there is any way that I can afford it I am going to go on and pursuit learning the Chinese language more in depth.

Please feel free to share this e-mail with any of your colleagues and superiors that you with.

Wish you all the best in all your future endeavors!

Sincerely,

Rhonda Gay