

中学生在展示自己写的春字

Showing the Chinese character "chun (spring)" they have finished

Confucius Institute of Troy University Promotes Chinese Language and Culture in Loveless Academic Magnet Program (LAMP)

On January 30, 2012, Confucius Institute of Troy University successfully introduced Chinese language and culture to the students of LAMP high school, Montgomery, Alabama.

In the classroom with many Chinese featured decoration of red lanterns, paintings, Chinese knots and paper cutting, CIT staff gave a class of Chinese language and culture for about 30 high School students and teachers.

The teaching content includes teaching daily language, writing Chinese characters, paper cutting of "double happiness" as well as practicing using chopsticks. Moreover, CIT prepared 500 dumplings and 50 spring rolls for students and teachers to feel the taste of Chinese New Year. Students took an active part in the activity.

Mr. Steven Frost, the teacher of Chinese in the School, said that it was the most impressive Chinese class he had experienced with his students ever. Ms. Sylvia Goshton, Principle of the school, visited CIT teachers and expressed great gratitude for CIT staff's work to let more students appreciate new things.

The language and culture experiencing class not only benefits the students, but also promotes the image of Confucius Institute at Troy University.

特洛伊大学孔子学院与高中生喜庆春节

2012年1月30日下午2点半，特洛伊大学孔子学院在阿拉巴马州府蒙哥马利市 (Montgomery, Alabama) 的孔子课堂——LAMP 高中，举办了以春节为主题的文化体验活动，30 余名高中生、家长及老师参加了活动。

中国结、灯笼、春联、纸伞将教室渲染的喜庆祥和，充满浓厚的中国气息。本次文化体验活动由四部分组成：学说日常用语、学写基础汉字、学剪中国剪纸、学用筷子并品尝饺子和春卷。学生们热情高涨，在孔子学院老师的指导下说汉语、写汉字、剪喜字，用筷子，品尝中国传统美食，了解春节习俗，这些体验活动让中国春节鲜活地呈现在他们眼前。

中学生学着用筷子吃饺子
Students are tasting dumplings by chopsticks.