

Troy Chinese Scholars and Students Celebrate National Day together with the Five-Starred Red Flag Flying Abroad

At 7 am of October 1st, 2014, when the sun rose gradually, more than one hundred Chinese scholars and students attended the flag-raising ceremony to celebrate the 65th National Day of People's Republic of China at the Flag Plaza of Troy University with the solemn Chinese national anthem. All the staff of Confucius Institute at Troy University witnessed this sacred moment. CIT teacher Chenghao Li acted as one of the flag bearers. At Flag Plaza of Troy University fly flags of more than 30 countries, and Chinese national flag is one of those flags.

