

Confucius Institute Booth is Popular at Career Fair, Chinese Courses are Pursued and Admired

At 10 a.m. on October 22nd 2014, the annual Career Fair was held in the basketball arena of Sartain Hall at Troy University. Confucius Institute provided an exhibition booth to allow students the opportunities to teach English in China. Many students were attracted to know about the details on the spot. We actually had graduates and postgraduates hand in their resume or complete applications at the information table.

This Career Fair is open to all the graduates of Troy University, but some juniors also showed up to learn about job requirements. The job of teaching English in China provided by Confucius Institute drew the attention of many students, they realized that if they know some basic Chinese language and Chinese culture, they would have many more choices for future careers, thus, students signed up for the related Chinese language courses of Confucius Institute right on the spot.

Boy Scouts Visited the Confucius Institute at Troy University

On October 25th, 2014, the Confucius Institute at Troy University welcomed the Boy Scout Tour. CIT staff introduced the Chinese Culture Center to the visiting students, also gave a group explanation on topics in which they were interested such as Chinese chess, foods and Kung Fu. There was an air of active interaction on the spot.

The Boy Scouts of America is one of the nation's largest and most prominent values-based youth development organizations. The BSA provides a program for young people that builds character, trains them in the responsibilities of participating citizenship, and develops personal fitness. The CIT tour laid a foundation for them to know about China and Chinese language and culture.

Troy Students Write Chinese Character with Brush and Ink in High Spirits at Chinese Corner

On October 30th, 2014, the Confucius Institute at Troy University held a Chinese Corner with the theme of Chinese Calligraphy, introducing the development history of Chinese characters and the Four Treasures of Chinese Calligraphy to present students. Students of different countries all tried to write Chinese characters with Chinese brush from basic strokes to their own Chinese names. Chinese calligraphy opens a window for them to know about Chinese culture.
