

CIT Staff Attended Troy fest in Partnership with Johnson Arts Center

On April 25th and 26th, CIT staff was invited to attend 2015 Troy fest and give folk dance show and present one of our popular folk arts, paper cutting, by Vicki Pritchett, the executive director of Johnson Arts Center. Both the dance and paper cutting were very popular among the festival attendees. Troy fest, held in honor of Jean Lake, is the premier fine art & craft festival for the central Alabama region. The weekend long show draws upwards of 10,000 people to downtown Troy to celebrate the arts.

As always, CIT staff promoted our regular Chinese class and culture programs, TROY-STARTALK, and distributed CIT fans which carry the contact information of all campus of Confucius Institute at Troy University. The locals loved our fans and said “Ya all should come out earlier.” The whole event was a great success.
