

CIT Staff Attended the 5th Annual Conference Of the Southeast Chinese Language Association

On October 24th, 2015, Ms. Yang Yang and Ms. Tingting Xiong from the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) were invited and attended the 5th Annual Conference of the Southeast Chinese Language Association in the USA. Ms. Yang Yang delivered an academic speech Research on the Effect of Traditional Chinese Sports on Overseas Cultural Promotion in the symposium .

This annual conference was held in Kennesaw University of Georgia. Over 100 participants come from different levels ranging from universities, middle schools, elementary schools and preschools in the southeast area of the USA. CIT grasps every opportunity to provide in-service professional training for Chinese language teachers. Except for inviting experts to hold teachers' professional development on different campuses at Troy University, CIT also sends teachers to attend all kinds of and all levels of teacher training within and outside of Alabama.

