

Confucius Institute at Troy University Attended Career Fair at Dothan Campus

The staff of Confucius Institute at Troy University attended the Career Fair at the Dothan Campus on February 12, 2015. Over 50 companies and hundreds of job seekers, including, high school students and local communities participated at the fair.

CIT's booth with Chinese characteristics attracted many job seekers. The career opportunity CIT offers includes teaching English in China. Five English teachers are needed to teach at Southwest University of Technology, Sichuan Province, China. In addition to providing job descriptions, CIT staff also introduced the Chinese language program being taught at each one our locations.

Also, CIT staff recommended the STARTALK program for high schools students who visited our booth, which stimulated great interest.
