

Confucius Institute at Troy University Give Lecture at Rotary Club Montgomery

On March 9, 2015, Dr. Rui Feng, a professor for the College of Education at Troy University, gave a presentation at the Montgomery Rotary Club luncheon. On behalf of the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT). Dr. Feng gave a very in-depth talk on Cultures, East and West —Historically and Linguistically.

The Montgomery Rotary Club is a renowned and influential organization within Montgomery, Alabama. Dr Lance Tatum, Vice Chancellor of Troy University in Montgomery, gave a detailed introduction to the CI, its March workshop, and the guest speaker of the day, Dr. Feng.

Dr. Feng's vivid and penetrating comparison between western and eastern cultures, along with his sense of humour, had aroused the club members' great interest in Chinese culture. After the talk, Dr. Feng was asked to share his PPT and invited to give the Club members more knowledge of practical Chinese culture related to doing business with the Chinese. Many Club members expressed their wishes to participate in March's workshop to acquaint themselves with more information.
