

Confucius Institute at Troy University attended the Asian Pacific Islanders Heritage Month Kick-off Event

On May 1, the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) was invited to attend the Asian Pacific Islanders Heritage Month Kick-off at the Exchange center, Fort Rucker. Decorated by Chinese paper cut, Chinese calligraphy, painting and Chinese knot, CIT booth was the highlight of this event. Which attracted about 500 visitors. Also, CIT staff taught the visitors on site Chinese paper cut and calligraphy. Especially the Chinese calligraphy themed Chinese zodiac has attracted the attention of many children.

CIT will bring more exciting Chinese style entertainment to participate the series of activities on May 22.

