

Confucius Institute at Troy University Holds

Signing Ceremony for New Confucius Classrooms

On September 9, 25, 2015, at 9:30 am, the signing ceremony of 3 Confucius Classrooms of CIT at Pike Road School, Forest Avenue Academic High School, and Baldwin Arts and Academics School, was held in the Whitley Hall, Montgomery campus of Troy University.

Dr. Lance Tatum, Vice Chancellor addressed the opening comments. Dr. Earl Ingram, Vice Chancellor, Mayor Todd Strange of Montgomery, Mayor Gordon Stone of the Town of Pike Road, Margaret Allen, Superintendent of Montgomery Public Schools and Suzanne Freeman, Superintendent of Pike Road Schools delivered welcoming speech respectively, and expressed their great thanks to the Confucius Institute and Troy University for offering a great opportunity and opening a new world to their kids. Dr. Iris Hong Xu and all the CIT staff attended the ceremony.

At 10: 20, Dr. Hawkins Jr., Chancellor of Troy University signed the documents of 3 Confucius Classrooms respectively with Dr. Suzanne Freeman, both Superintendent of Pike Road Schools and Principal of Pike Road School, Emily Little, Principal of Forest Avenue Academics Schools and Jannette Wright, Principal of Baldwin Arts and Academics.

After the ceremony, Chancellor Jack Hawkins Jr., Mayor Todd Strange and Mayor Gordon Stone received interview from three news media.

