

Former US Ambassador to Bolivia Mr. David Greenlee visits the Confucius Institute at Troy University

Former US Ambassador to Bolivia Mr. David Greenlee, along with others, visited the Confucius Institute at Troy University on February 4, 2015.

Ambassador David Greenlee was appointed by President George Bush to Haiti, Chile, Spain and other places of work. He a master of Spanish, French Guarani and other foreign languages.

Dr. Hong Xu, the Director of Confucius Institute at Troy University provided an introduction and brief summary of Confucius Institute to the visitors. She introduced programs, such as "Star Talk", "China Trip", "Chinese Corner", "Teachers Training" and other activities that are used to promote Chinese language and culture. Dr. Xu highlighted her teams hard work and achievements, like the Award of Excellence in 2012. Chancellor, Dr. Hawkins, was honored with Confucius Institute Award in 2014. He was one of nine university chancellors worldwide and the only one in North America to receive the award. Dr. Xu also mentioned that CIT strives to offer service for the Chinese invested companies in Alabama. Mr. David Greenlee affirmed and praised the work of the Confucius Institute at Troy

University. A Chinese painting was given to Mr. David Greenlee as a gift by CIT.

