

The 4th Chinese Language and Culture Workshop Kicks Off in Westgate Library at Dothan

On Dec. 1st, 2015, Mr. Yanbing Wang and Ms. Qunying Yuan held the 4th session of 2015 Fall Chinese Language and Culture Workshop at Dothan region library, Westgate Library. The topic of this session is about traditional Chinese costumes and wedding customs, including the evolution of traditional Chinese costumes in style, the symbolic meaning of those common patterns on attires and the peculiar rituals observed for thousands of years regarding attires in China. Besides the history of color changes of wedding gowns, Ms. Yuan also shared with the participants traditional wedding customs, which gave the audience more insights into Chinese culture and customs.

