

The Confucius Institute at Troy University Attend the Open House Day at Dothan campus

On April 29, The Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT) attended the Open House Day at Dothan Campus. This event was held in the Harrison Room, Malone Hall. The booth with Chinese culture characteristics, decorated by Professor Wang, the coordinator of CIT at Dothan office, drew attention of the attendees present. Besides introducing the visitors the ongoing 3rd Chinese Language and Culture Workshop at Dothan Campus, he also distributed the flyers of Chinese language course in this fall. This event was like a window to promote Chinese language and culture at Dothan Campus.