

CIT Held Appreciation Luncheon at Dothan Campus

The Confucius Institute of Troy University (CIT) held an appreciation luncheon at the Dothan Campus of Troy University to acknowledge the hard work and dedication of the Dothan Campus staff.

Dr. Don Jeffrey, vice chancellor of Troy University, was present and pointed out the importance of setting up cultural relationships with China in the context of globalization based on his own travels to China, and the importance of CIT to Troy University.

The luncheon was decorated in traditional Chinese festival decorations and Chinese food was served.

Ms. Qunying Yuan, Chinese teacher at Troy University in Dothan, thanked the faculty and staff for their support.

