

Director of the Confucius Institute at Troy University visits Dothan area Schools

Dr. Iris Xu, Director of the Confucius Institute at Troy University (CIT), visited Kelly Springs Elementary School and Northview High School to discuss establishing Confucius classrooms/sites.

Xu met with Wanda Dismukes, principle of Kelly Springs Elementary School, and Charles Corbitt, principle of Northview High School.

They both expressed eagerness to continue with plans to establish classrooms/sites to promote Chinese culture.

“Chinese language and culture exposure will bring diversity to Northview,” Corbitt said. “That is something we need in this area, and would greatly benefit the students.”

Details of a Chinese New Year Celebration were also discussed for Kelly Springs which would occur around February, 8.

