

Reminiscing about Chinese ethnic minorities culture- the Manchu

In the afternoon on September 29, 2016, the second Chinese Corner series cultural lecture of the Confucius Institute at Troy university was held in the lab at Confucius Institute. The theme of the lecture was " Reminiscing about China's ethnic minorities culture, the Manchu". The instructor, adjunct professor Lin Cao, introduced the population of Manchu, regional distribution, and the language, etc. Then she introduced the 12 emperors of the Qing dynasty, Man-han banquet and the Qing dynasty costumes, and explained the influence of Manchu culture in contemporary China. The instructor, adjunct professor Lin Cao, showed the charm of cheongsam and delicious food combining with the video. During the whole lecture, all the students expressed their views actively. Through mutual communication all the students have a deeper understanding of the China and the Manchu.

