

Lecture on Chinese Culture ---Terracotta Warrior

On November 10, 2016, Confucius Institute at Troy University held the Chinese Corner with the topic Terracotta Warrior. The lecture attracted several professors, lecturers and students on Troy campus to participate in. CIT instructor, Wenjuan Cheng started the topic with the 200 terracotta warrior copies in the International Art Center of Troy University. She introduced in detail the reasons and processes of making terracotta warrior as well as the final discovery by the peasants in Lintong county. Then she introduced the categories, facial shapes, hairstyles, dressing and weaponry with plenty of photos. At last, the audience watched the related videos. The lecture ended in a heated discussion. The lecturer presented the audience with a better understanding of terracotta warrior and Chinese culture.

