

CIT Staff Attended the 13th Annual International Tasting in Montgomery

On November 12, 2017, Confucius Institute at Troy University participated in the 13th Annual International Tasting in Southern Homes and Gardens in Montgomery.

The CIT staff not only provided exquisite Chinese cuisine for this event, but also showed people how to perform traditional Chinese tea ceremony. At the same time, visitors came to enjoy the unique charm of Chinese culture while tasting famous Chinese tea. Visitors also experienced the colorfulness of Peking Opera masks and the cuteness of the Panda T-shirts. Meanwhile, they learned more about the lectures and the lessons of the spring semester in 2018 such as Chinese language courses and Tai Chi.

This event has successfully boosted overseas Chinese people and local people's interests in Chinese culture. They all hoped that the CIT staff will continue to participate in the Annual International Tasting next year.

