

Montgomery Focus– Harbin Ice and Snow Festival

On November 15, CIT Montgomery Campus held the seventh lecture of Montgomery Focus on Chinese Culture in Coliseum Library with the title Harbin Ice and Snow Festival. Ms. Wei Yu firstly introduced that the Harbin International Ice and Snow Sculpture Festival is an annual winter festival and started on January 5, 1985. Then she showed many pictures to demonstrate a general profile of this grand event. She also introduced the city of Harbin and the forest and rime in Jilin Province. Then she presented some interesting winter activities during the festival including Yabuli alpine skiing, winter-swimming in Songhua River and ice-lantern exhibition in Zhaolin Garden. With plenty of videos, the attendees experienced the charm of the unique International Ice and Snow Sculpture Festival.
