

2017 CIT Dothan Community Mid-Autumn Day Celebration

Brewed friendship in the Fragrance of Tea

On October, 7 2017, Mid-Autumn Day Celebration was held successfully in the Harrison Room on Dothan Campus of CIT. More than thirty guests from various communities in Dothan city, actively participated in this activity.

Ms. Jing Yang, CIT visiting scholar, presented the traditional Chinese tea ceremony in the sweet and melodious music “A Moonlit Night on the Spring River”. The guests were all interested in the Zisha teapot and Tieguanyin tea. They drank the tea and frequently raised many questions about the unique Chinese tea culture, such as the tea set, various kinds of tea and the tea-making process. Ms. Li Zhang, a visiting scholar of CIT interpreted throughout the ceremony and made a brief introduction to the classification of Chinese tea, tea-making methods and tea-drinking custom in different areas of China. This offered the guests a wonderful opportunity to get to know the profound Chinese tea culture.

Following the tea ceremony was a presentation made by Ms. Yandong Wang, CIT visiting scholar, about the origin of Mid-Autumn Day, the prevailing stories, legends and how Chinese people celebrate this festival. Besides, CIT also prepared moon cakes and the paper-cut for the guests. They enjoyed the friendly atmosphere and spent a harmonious and enjoyable Mid-Autumn Day accompanied by lasting fragrance of tea, touching stories and delicious moon cakes.

The celebration approached to the end in the beautiful melody of “The Moon Represents My Heart”. CIT will spare no efforts to continuously work for the promotion of Chinese culture and serving the local community.
