

CIT Teachers attended AWLA Conference at Auburn University

On Feb.3 and 4, 2017, staff of Confucius Institute at Troy University attended the conference hosted by Alabama Chinese Language Teachers Association in Auburn University Dixon Conference Center. Dr. Rui Feng, Chairman of Chinese Teacher Association was also invited to the annual conference.

Led by Dean Xu, Mr. Zhi Zha (Deputy Dean of CIT), Ms. Wei Yu, Lin Cao, Jing Zhang and Yinxiao Zhang went to sub-venues respectively and listened to the keynote speech for a general idea of AL language teaching situation and experience. Meanwhile, CIT booth was set in the Conference Center Exhibition Hall for showing up the characteristic achievements of CIT language teaching and culture activities, such as teaching wall charts, Chinese books, special purchases for Spring Festival and videos of Taichi, etc. The visitors were deeply impressed by the displays. Dr. Xu, the CIT Dean and Ms. Anthe Zhang, Chinese language teacher from Indian Spring School co-chaired the ACLTA Chinese Teaching workshop. This is really a precious opportunity provided to the CIT staff for improving their teaching methodology and classroom management skills.

